

Church Notes – September 2008

It takes a whole community to raise a child!

Kids for Saving the Earth – Texada Day Camp ran August 18 –22 with an awesome turn-out of up to 18 kids and several parents and grandparents! The whole community stepped up to the plate to make this a memorable experience for the children of Texada. Thanks to all who helped in too many ways to mention. This only works when we all pitch in! To view pictures of all five days events go to: <http://texada-united-church.dlfpr.ca> and enjoy!

Kids for Saving the Earth Club: if any kids are interested in an ongoing club around environmental issues/activities, or any adult interested in facilitating such a group, please call me at 604 486 7284 and we'll talk about it! This organization is international, and has a great website you can Google! www.kidsforsavingearth.org
